

TREE SQUARES

Each player takes a turn connecting two trees, either horizontally or vertically. The player drawing the last line forming a square, puts his or her initials inside the square. When all trees are connected, the player with the most squares wins.

